

BARC BROWNING MEDAL

This medal is awarded to that member of the Club who performs an act of courage in attempting to save life or mitigate injury, acting without regard to his personal safety and to an extent which is beyond the normal call of duty.

1973

eastcorkpai

David Purley

In recognition of his courageous efforts to go to the aid of the late Roger Williamson at the Dutch Grand Prix, Zandvoort, 29th July.

2004

Stephen Green

Awarded for outstanding bravery in tackling a track invader during the 2003 British Grand Prix, Silverstone, 20th July.