Caterham – Jon Bryant @Snappyracers

The BARC North Western Centre would like to thank all marshals and officials for coming out and supporting us again this season at Oulton Park. Our future meetings this year at Oulton Park are 27th/29th May, 8th July and 14th October, Anglesey on 3rd /4th June and Croft on 20th / 21st May & 12th / 13th August. Without the support of all Officials and Marshals the competitors here today would not be able to race. We look forward to welcoming all to any of our future meetings and for those of you who haven't marshalled before why not contact either of the below and get involved?

Ray Sumner (Senior Clerk) and Margaret Simpson (Chief Marshal)

WELCOME

“O, TO be in England. Now that April 's there.” – Robert Browning.

Welcome to BARC NW's first meeting of the year. Yes, it's finally here, the spring and the new racing season. The fence still isn't painted, the garage is still full of junk and those new Ikea shelves are still in the cardboard they arrived in, but who cares? Racing is back!

Roadsport drivers chasing the rainbow at Knockhill last season

With all the grids being provided by Caterham it's not a meeting if you are looking for a variety in shapes and sizes of competing cars, but that is more than made up for in the competitiveness and ferocity of the racing.

Having thrown their mortar boards in the air following graduation from the Caterham Academy, drivers can join the Vertex Caterham Roadsport Championship. The cars are road legal and powered by the 125bhp Ford Sigma engine. They are taking to the track this afternoon in races 4 and 8.

Visibly different to the roadsports, the cars of the Mission Motorsport Caterham Seven 270R Championship, races 1, 5 and 9, have had their weight, aerodynamics and handling improved by the removal of their windscreens and lights and the stiffening up of their suspension. Moving them away from their road car origins and turning them into purposeful racing cars. The championship also removes the restrictions on who runs the cars and drivers benefit from the experience and guidance of professional teams.

The 270R grid racing through the first corner at Anglesey in 2022

Following directly on in races 2, 6 and 10 are the 270R's new big brothers the Motul Caterham Seven 310Rs. With 152 BHP on tap they are not for the faint hearted but give regular Caterham racers a chance to take a step up in power.

Battling Caterhams at Anglesey last season

The pinnacle of the climb through the classes is the Avon Tyres Caterham Seven Championship UK. The winner of which is regarded as the official British Caterham Champion. A 180bhp 2.0 Caterham Motorsport Tuned Engine, paired to a six-speed sequential gearbox, in a bespoke racing chassis means using all the lessons they have learned coming through the ranks to take it on. Let alone being surrounded on the track by a grid full of equally well educated aspiring champions. You can see the action in races 3, 7 and 10.

CATERHAM MOTORSPORT SEASON OPENER

The 38th season of Caterham's official factory championships get underway this weekend with no fewer than fourteen races in a welcome return to Oulton Park, which has not hosted the senior championships as a whole since 2019.

Drivers in the Caterham Roadsport championship are embarking on just their second year of racing, with almost all starting in the Academy last year. The only major change to the car is the switch from the Academy training tyre to a full track spec Avon ZZS; but this makes all the difference. Academy White Group champion #89 Tom McEwing enters the year as favourite, with his Green Group rival Rrujtuj Patki having jumped straight to Seven 270R. Instead, McEwen's strongest challenge is likely to come from his White group rival and two-time Academy race winner #8 Ben Timmonds. The former Green Group challengers will come in the form of #70 Simon Sabin and youngest driver on the grid, 20 year-old #77 Harvey Lawrence; both race winners themselves. Third place championship driver #83 Iain Hibbert, the only championship podium finisher not to win a race, will be looking for that elusive first victory.

The third rung on Caterham's 'motorsport ladder'; Seven 270R is a step change from Roadsport with a suspension upgrade, removal of the screen and lights (giving a real race-car feel), and the option to have professional team support. Unlike the two levels below, drivers can remain in Seven 270R for multiple years but the bulk of this year's grid is made up of the cream of last year's Roadsports, including championship runners-up, #66 Freddie Chiddicks and #21 Charlie Lower who are expected to duke it out for this year's title.

The final incarnation of the Academy car is the Seven 310R, now sporting a limited slip diff and power upgrade to 152bhp. Most will have started life back in Academy 2020, including the three favourites, #22 Hugo Bush, #25 Dominique Mannsperger, and triple champion #11 Taylor O'Flanagan. The trio have almost exclusively shared the podium over the last three years on their way up through the ladder and whilst Hugo and German driver Dominique are no strangers to winning, the question is whether either can prevent Taylor taking a record-equalling fourth championship title.

The Caterham Seven Championship UK marks not only the pinnacle of Caterham racing, but is also widely regarded as the premier club level championship in the UK. Despite no aero aids, the slick-shod Seven 420R race car will lap Oulton Park at a similar pace to GT3 cars. Drivers are split into Pro-Am and Am rankings, with Caterham superstar #1 Aaron Head back to defend his title; but all eyes will be on the green car of #79 Lewis Thompson who, in the latter half of last year, was the dominant driver ahead of Head.
